

BRIAN AND TRISH FINK FAMILY

Brian and Trish began serving with North American Indian Ministries (NAIM) April 1, 1996. They are in Saskatchewan, Canada

They work among the Plains Cree people. Their home is located near the File Hills Reserves (Peepeekisis, Okanese, Little Black Bear, and Starblanket). They are living in South Central Saskatchewan about 3 1/2 hours north of the Montana, North Dakota border.

God has blessed them with five children:
Cherilynn was born Oct 14, 1992
Chaskin was born Dec 11, 1993
Autumn was born Oct 19, 1996
Faith was born Feb 23, 1998
Liam was born Aug 15, 1999

They are about the work of building and maintaining relationships for the purpose of evangelism and discipleship. This can take many forms such as: Bible studies, visitation, hosting gatherings, game nights, helping individuals with their daily duties, encouraging the local Native pastors in whatever ways they can, and many others.

"The opportunities to minister are as boundless as our Great God! We seek to remain flexible and open to where He is working and wanting to use us."
