

IMB Monies

κ All missionaries are out under a faith-based program. They raise what they need; they only receive what you send. The IMB does not take any percentage out for overhead expenses. There are some missionaries who are still transitioning over to this program.

κ If missionaries raise their own support, why does the IMB need money? Good Question!

The IMB uses a General Fund for:

- Publishing The Gleanings
- Travel Expenses
 - Missionaries to Conference
 - Representative to mission fields
- Office Expenses
- Missionary Emergencies
- Projects
- Promotional budget
- Preacher's Pension Fund

The Gleanings

Each missionary is contacted each month. Praises and prayer requests are received. These are typed up and sent to churches and individuals. The churches are to copy it and make it available to their people to use as a tool for prayer.

Missionaries to Your Church or Group

When a missionary is home on furlough and visiting churches or if a missionary is raising support, there are three ways the missionary might set up a meeting.

1. The District Superintendent will be informed as to when the missionary will be in his area. The D.S. will then call the churches in his district and set up speaking engagements.
2. The missionary may call churches and set up his or her own schedule of visiting.
3. A church may contact any missionary directly to invite him or her to speak.

We have available packets for some of the missionaries. These contain a biography, overhead transparencies and a quiz. If you would like to receive one or more to promote missions in your church, contact Sue Kidd at 607-797-1120 or dkidd@stny.rr.com.

We hope this helps familiarize you with your International Mission Board. If you have any questions or if we can help put missions before your people, please feel free to contact us!
see the denomination's website at:
www.primitivemethodistchurch.org. Some of the missionaries have a half-page flier available for printing.
