

Rev. William Vasey

Rev. William Vasey was a missionary to Guatemala from 1968-1983. While there he was involved in church planting and translating the New Testament into the Joyabaj Quichè language. From 1984-1999 he was pastor of the Glenwood Primitive Methodist Church in Boardman, OH.

June of 2000 he returned to Guatemala to translate the Old Testament into the Quichè language. He also did revision on the New Testament. This was completed during the summer of 2005 and is now in the hands of the Quichè people. .

Bill has begun translating the Scriptures into another dialect of Quichè.

You can contact Rev. Vasey at:

Rev. Will Vasey
c/o Casa Del Ray
Suite 301
Chichicastenango
Guatemala, Central America
Phone: (cell) 011 502 5057 9756
E-mail: billvasey@gmail.com

Rev. William Vasey

Rev. William Vasey was a missionary to Guatemala from 1968-1983. While there he was involved in church planting and translating the New Testament into the Joyabaj Quichè language. From 1984-1999 he was pastor of the Glenwood Primitive Methodist Church in Boardman, OH.

June of 2000 he returned to Guatemala to translate the Old Testament into the Quichè language. He also did revision on the New Testament. This was completed during the summer of 2005 and is now in the hands of the Quchè people.

Bill has begun translating the Scriptures into another dialect of Quichè.

You can contact Rev. Vasey at:

Rev. Will Vasey
c/o Casa Del Ray
Suite 301
Chichicastenango
Guatemala, Central America
Phone: (cell) 011 502 5057 9756
E-mail: billvasey@gmail.com